2. NUISANCE CODE

Jared Peterson presented a draft of the nuisance code. Most of the revisions make the code easier to read by breaking it out a little more. There are a few other changes bringing it up to date with State code. This is for the council to take home and to read, study and see what other items that need to be updated or changed. The intent is to make it easier for code enforcement and law enforcement to be able to cite certain infractions.
