WORK SESSION

OPENING REMARKS– INVITATION

Opening remarks were offered by Karl Shuler
Pledge lead by Mayor Haddock

1. TRAILS DISCUSSION

Councilmember Thomas stated that Payson City is working on a grant for the Forebay Area and Elk Ridge area. This is a very, very preliminary discussion, and the trails can and will change as development comes in, but the city needs to give Payson a trails map discussions for the grant. In order to get funding, the trails cannot allow motorized vehicles. Discussion ensued with residence on placement of the trails. The committee will meet again next week.

2. CE 3 DISCUSSION

Larry Lee Planning Commission Member reported that the commission found a lot of interest in preserving the mountain. There was an emphasis on referencing other parts of the code to cut down the size of the code it's too large and hard to get through. Planning Commission would like to consult with professionals on roads, wildlife etc. before making any final decisions. Discussion ensued on how to protect the area without making the code too restrictive. Councilmember Willis went through the clustering option. Smaller lots on cul-de-sacs helps preserve open space and creates less roads and infrastructure. Open space can be donated to the city go into a trust or remain private.

58 PUBLIC FORUM

59 Mike Hill stated he has been a Firefighter for 32 years and is most concerned about ingress and egress
60 of the city and now the city wants to put more homes up on the mountain and we can barely meet the 61 city needs requirements for EMS and fire. The city is currently calling other cities to do our 62 ambulance transports and now the city wants to add 400 more homes up on the hill. Now you want to 63 add more fire protection when we have to call another city to do co2 detector clearing of a house and
64 then our snow removal not the best. How are we going to meet the demands of the current population
65 before building more houses. Thank you
66

71 The city has not received all the revisions it has requested, and it is possible that the final will

85 the potential violator to appeal it. This is still up to the discretion of who is deciding whether it is 86 a violation because the code says "anything". Discussion ensued on what is the remedy and 87 possible examples and how exactly would this work and what avenue does the city have to stop
88 work on unpermitted, unsafe work. Cory Thompson stated other city codes have appeal clauses
89 that add more days to the work stoppage because the appeals process can take 14 days (example)
90 and all work must stop until the matter is resolved.

135 Councilmember Thompson stated conservation easements are a tax write off and can be left as private 136 land and is maintained by the conservation.

137 Councilmember Willis stated that city's give density bonus varies from; Provo 25%- Salt Lake up to 138 25% Sanpete 100% Elk Ridge has 400% bonus if you cluster and feels that 400% is out of line. Mayor
139 stated should not get bonus for unbuildable area. Councilmember Willis read from the General Plan 140 "Maximum density in CE3 in a cluster overlay shall be no greater 1 dwelling per 1 acre of the 141 predeveloped parcel size. The density of the sight is constrained by the available buildable area.

142 Mayor Haddock stated the roads were considered non-buildable area. Councilmember Thompson stated
143 that the developer is likely to ask for smaller lots to make up for the non-buildable area.

144 Councilmember Willis stated that the connector road is not going to happen in the foreseeable future so 145 development will want to connect a road not designed to be a collector road. Discussion ensued on the 146 grade of the area. Councilmember Peterson stated that the city should not give any density bonus but to 147 set a minimum lot size and trade trails for sidewalks. The economics, non-buildable area, sewer
148 connections will limit the amount of homes. If you buy 20 acres and only 3 houses fit, then that perhaps 149 wasn't the best purchase. Discussion ensued on how much unbuildable land is there and getting a better
150 map of the non-buildable area. Discussion circled back to ingress and egress and the steep grades of 151 roads available to attached to.
